Dear Mrs Short

You could not have given me a greater pleasure than that to send me that beautiful photograph of your dear children. My darling Dorothea how beautiful she looks, both are delightful. I wish they must have seen photographs

Yours sincerely,

Mrs Short

by their father or at any rate he must have exchanged them.

It is delightful pictures, have they never been painted?

Thank you & Mr. Ford so very much for it.

Please give my love to the children & tell them, I shall look often at their dear faces & hope to give them in return my photographs. Dorothy will always remember us, I know.

I hope you have had a bright Christmas & had your in spite of the sadness which we cannot help feeling, when one thinks of so many poor lives wasted, while with such dear children, you must be happy & content.
With best wishes for you
