

1901 - 1916

THE INCORPORATED
FROEBEL EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTE,
COLET GARDENS, TALGARTH ROAD,
WEST KENSINGTON, LONDON, W.

Miss Yelland thinks that perhaps it is not quite clearly understood that dinner is only provided for children living at a distance.

In special cases or in very bad weather exceptions are made to this rule.

When a large number of children remain at school it means much additional work to the mistresses and others and Miss Yelland hopes that no children will stay unnecessarily.